PRESS REVIEW

MONTAGNE SAINT-EMILION AOC

CHATEAU GRAND BARAIL 2016

GOLD, 87/100 - “A bright purple colour with purplish tints. Discreet plum and cherry nose, some fine spices. Pleasant full flavours, succulent. Then notes of spices gradually develop with a well-balanced vegetal frame. All is his place. A veritable delicacy to be tasted soon.” Tasting 2017

SILVER - “ Expresses lovely fruitiness, balanced, the finish is agreeable and soft.”

CONCOURS GENERAL AGRICOLE Paris 2018

BRONZE, 88pts - “ Good red fruit delivery on the nose with mid-palate spice and a tight finish.”

DWWA 2018

PRIX DES VINALIES NATIONALES - “The inky, purple colour shows a wine that is still young. The nose has aromas of wild red berries, blueberries and blackberries. The wine has some high tannins to shed with ageing. To be served with a rib steak and a wine sauce.” Competition 2018
