PRESS REVIEW

LUSSAC SAINT-EMILION AOC

CHATEAU LA HAUTE CLAYMORE 2016

GOLD - 85/100 (Dégustation 2018) - “Beautiful intense ruby with dark purple tints. The nose is backward but opens up after airing to lovely stone fruits. Supple attack then a more expressive palate delivering spice aromas and silky tannins. A consistent, focused wine for red meats.”

SILVER - 90pts (DWAA 2018) - “ A ripe and round example with a plump red fruit nose. Well-integrated oak and herbs meld together prettily on the concentrated palate with a show of firm tannins on the long finish.”

“ The nose gives off dark berries aromas (blackcurrant) and a subtle smoked flavor. A lovely warm wine.”
