

LA CLAYMORE
vigneron-récoltant

PRESS REVIEW

MONTAGNE SAINT-EMILION AOC

vinous

JEB DUNNUCK

VertdeVin
MAGAZINE & WEBSITE FOR WINE & SPIRITS LOVERS

CHATEAU FLAUNYS 2018

Le Point

14,5/20 - "Black fruits, round and supple palate, fine tannins, quite silky, dense body, tannins of good quality, beautiful fruit"
Jacques Dupont, En-primeur tasting

Yves Beck

90-92pts - "A purplished crimson colour. Enticing bouquet, well-defined and complex. Spicy notes, mineral and fruity. Extremely elegant. Refreshing and luscious attack. Creamy flavours and fresh on the palate, with focused tannins in harmony with the structure. This wine is perfectly balanced between power and what a beautiful wine, so delicate! Congratulations!" May 2019

88-90pts "Composed of 85% Merlot and 15% Cabernet Franc, the deep garnet-purple colored 2018 Flaunys has quite a spicy nose with a core of black cherries and mulberries plus hints of dusty soil and dried herbs.

The palate is full, rich and spicy with soft tannins and a fragrant finish." Robert Parker, Wine Advocate (23/04/2019)

Anthocyanes

88-90+pts - "Nose of « al dente » black fruits, flowers too. Juicy to the taste and elegant, it is round and fresh on the palate, the finish is round and savoury. A pleasurable wine." Yohan Castaing, April 2019

87-89pts - "The 2018 Flaunys is floral, juicy and quite expressive. Although not especially complex, Flaunys offers notable finesse for the appellation, not to mention tons of near term appeal. The 2018 finishes with lovely floral and spice-infused freshness. The blend is 85% Merlot and 15% Cabernet Franc." Antonio Galloni, April 2019

90pts - "Beautiful redcurrants, wild strawberries, spring flowers, and cedary notes emerge from the 2018 Château Flaunys, a medium-bodied, ethereal, elegant Montagne Saint-Emilion offering light tannins, beautiful balance, and outstanding length. It's not a blockbuster, but it has a seamless, compelling style that keeps you coming back to the glass. It's beautifully done, and while it already offers considerable pleasure today, it's going to keep for a solid decade." Jeb Dunnuck, March 2021

15+/20 89-90/100 - "The nose is fruity and offers a small richness as well as small intensity. It reveals notes of pulpy cassis, ripe Boysen berry, small notes of fleshy/juicy violet plum associated with touches of strawberry as well as hints of fresh lily, fine hints of liquorice and a very discreet hint of grey pepper. The palate is fruity, well-balanced and offers a juicy/acidulous frame, minerality, a fine tension as well as a pulpy/juicy/very discreetly tight fruit. On the palate this wine expresses notes of pulpy/juicy red berries associated with fine hints of juicy violet plum as well as hints of lily/lilac and very discreet hints of toasted almond. Good length. Tannins are well-built. A small tension on the finish. A iodine hint and cocoa on the finish/persistence." VertdeVin magazine & Website (hiver 2021)

LA CLAYMORE – Maison Neuve - F 33570 LUSSAC – France

Phone +33 557 746 748 / Email contact@laclaymore.fr / Website : www.laclaymore.fr