PRESS REVIEW

MONTAGNE SAINT-EMILION AOC

CHATEAU GRAND BARAIL 2014

GOLD, 87/100 - “Garnet colour. Nose of red and black ripe fruits with floral notes. A great fruity freshness on the palate, yet young and restrained. The tannins melt smoothly and fruity flavours are preserved intact. A very good profile for this appellation.” Tasting 2016

SILVER - “This wine is ambitious! Excellent qualitative potential with high level of maturity, round on the palate. Extremely elegant and seducing.” Competition ELLE A TABLE 2016

COMMENDED - 84pts - “Currant and berry aromas, the palate has restrained crunchy backcurrant fruit and rewarding length.” DWWA 2016

Prix d'Honneur 2018 - “Montagne Saint-Emilion Château Grand Barail 2014, 75% Merlot, 15% Cabernet-Sauvignon and 10% Cabernet franc, is generous, well defined by prune and cinnamon aromas, with a beautiful crimson colour, combining nice tannic fineness and a lingering round body.” P.215, Edition 2018

Médailles : SILVER, 8th Sakura Japan Women's Wine Awards 2021
