PRESS REVIEW

LUSSAC SAINT-EMILION AOC

CHATEAU LA CLAYMORE 2018

90-92pts - “Nose of black cherry, raspberry, very floral. Fleshy in the mouth, juicy with a beautiful velvety texture with roundness and a nice freshness. Round and greedy” Yohan Castaing, Primeurs 2018 (18/04/2019)

Yves Beck

91pts - “Intense garnet red colour. Elegant, complex bouquet of black berries, liquorice and freshly baked bread. Well-balanced with fine-grained tannins, perfectly fused, bringing out a beautiful richness on the palate whereas a good acid structure gives freshness to the overall mouth. Fruity long-lasting finish. 2021-2033” Yves Beck, Tasting 16/11/2020

86-88pts - “Composed of 65% Merlot, 15% Cabernet Franc and 20% Malbec, the deep garnet-purple colored 2018 La Claymore is a little closed, offering broody tilled soil, tar and chargrill notes over a baked plums, blackberry pie and hoisin core. Medium-bodied, the palate is firm and chewy in the mouth with reticent fruit and an earthy finish.” Robert Parker, Wine Advocate (23/04/2019)

Decanter
World Wine Awards

SILVER, 92pts - “Impressive perfume of violets, plum and cherry, with the floral aspect continuing on to the soft milk chocolate palate which is lifted by refreshing acidity.” Decanter World Wine Awards 2020

VertdeVin
MAGAZINE & WEBSITE FOR WINE & SPIRITS LOVERS

15,25/20 - 90/100 - “The nose is aromatic, flowery and offers a certain power. It reveals notes of fleshy/crushed blackberry, raspberry, small notes of crushed cassis associated with small touches of small fresh red fruits, crushed plum as well as hints of violet, rose and very fine hints of grey pepper. The palate is fruity and offers juiciness, freshness as well as gourmandize, a mineral/juicy frame and a fine tension. On the palate this wine expresses notes of juicy/pulpy cassis, pulpy blackberry, small notes of fleshy raspberry associated with touches of small juicy/acidulous red berries, cherry as well as hints of cornflower, fresh lilac, fine hints of chocolate, toasted almond and very discreet hints of sweet spices. Tannins are well-built. Fine hints of toasted/vanilla on the finish/persistence.” - VertdeVin magazine & Website (winter 2021)

vinous

86-88pts - “The 2018 La Claymore is a bold, punchy wine. Ride red cherry, blood orange, mint, white pepper, and crushed flowers give the 2018 lovely aromatic complexity to play off the dense fruit. There is good energy here, as well as plenty of personality. The blend is 65% Merlot, 20% Malbec and 15% Cabernet Franc.” Antonio Galloni, Vinous (April 2019)
