LUSSAC SAINT-EMILION AOC

CHATEAU LA CLAYMORE 2019

Yves Beck 89-91pts - “Dense garnet red colour with violet hints. Enticing bouquet of morello cherries and spices. Fresh and tasty on the palate. Beautiful structure, refreshing with well-defined tannins. A full-bodied wine, lively with a beautiful fruity feel. Should improve with age, full of promise! 2024-2034” Yves Beck, Primeurs 2019 (March 2020)

JEB DUNNUCK 89-91pts - “Emerging from the Lussac region of Saint-Emilion, the 2019 Château La Claymore is another pretty, elegant, complex wine from this estate. Notes of red, blue, and black fruits as well as graphite and spring flowers all emerge from the glass, and this medium-bodied, elegant, focused 2019 has good mid-palate depth and outstanding length. It certainly has potential.” Jeb Dunnuck, Primeurs 2019

vinous 90pts - “The 2019 La Claymore is a racy, supple Lussac Saint-Émilion endowed with terrific presence. Black cherry jam, licorice, rose petals, lavender and sweet spice all flesh out. The 2019 is forward and plush, but also very nicely balanced. Attractive floral notes perk up the finish.” Antonio Galloni (January 2022)

VertdeVin 15.5/20 - 90-91/100 - “On the nose it is fruity and offers a certain power as well as a little exuberance of the fruit. It reveals notes of ripe / fresh wild cassis, crunchy small red berries and more lightly violet associated with touches of cherry, lily as well as fine hints of spices. The palate is balanced, fruity and offers juiciness, a tangy texture, a little crunch as well as energy. On the palate this wine expresses notes of pulpy / juicy red cherry, pulpy / juicy cassis and more slightly of violet associated with touches of small crunchy / juicy berries, with hints of lilac, cornflowers as well as fine grilled hints and cocoa. The tannins are precise and supple. Good length.” Jonathan Choukroun Chicheportiche, 04/2020
