Tasting notes

CHATEAU FLAUNYS 2022 MONTAGNE SAINT-EMILION AOC

Score

91-92 pts – James Suckling April 19, 2023 – Firm and lightly chewy with fresh fruit and stony minerality. Medium body. Lengthy.

89-91pts – Yohan Castaing, Robert Parker - Wine Advocate
April 28, 2023 – With aromas of ink, lilac, bramble and dark berries, the 2022 Flaunys has a juicy, fresh, charming and enveloping palate with bright acids, aromas of gravel soils and a fresh finish. This is a strong effort and an estate to watch.

90-91pts – Yves Beck April 12, 2023 – Intensely aromatic, Flaunys shows freshness and minerality on the nose, as well as scents of black berries. Good density on the palate, the wine is juicy with vigorous tannins that should become rounded, yet providing good backbone with structural acidity. 2027-2037.
