LUSSAC SAINT-EMILION AOC

CHATEAU LA CLAYMORE 2022

Yves Beck 90-92pts - “ Great delicacy on the nose. Good harmony between the wine maturing and the expression of the fruit. The palate confirms this delicate bouquet. The wine is elegant, harmonious and structured. The finish is fruity and long-lasting, perfectly enhanced by the structure. 2027-2037. ”
Yves Beck, Primeurs 2022 (April 13, 2023)

JAMES SUCKLING.COM 91-92pts - “Some solid fruit in this wine with black berry and fresh herb aromas and flavors. Medium-bodied. Savory and juicy. Well done for the appellation.” James Suckling, Primeurs 2022 (April 7, 2023)

90pts - “Medium deep colour with a purple hue. The nose displays some new oak, mild spices and wild berries. Rather dense and fresh palate, youthful texture but with ripe tannin, crushed berry and plum notes with good purity and length.” Andreas Larsson, Tasted (June 18, 2024)
