PRESS REVIEW

LUSSAC SAINT-EMILION AOC

CHATEAU LA HAUTE CLAYMORE 2022

1 star - “ This merlot from Fronsac molass shows the sustained colour of this vintage and gives nuanced aromas of ripe fruit and spices, as well as roasting scents on the nose which linger on the palate. The mouth is nicely harmonious and has a charming soft texture with fine tannins and persistent freshness. ”

Le Guide Hachette des Vins 2026, p.255-256

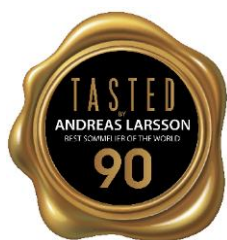

91pts - “ The wine from this estate, named after the claymore, an ancient Scottish sword, is full of black cherry aromas and with blackberry and tannin flavors. It is a rich, full-bodied that will be ready from 2027. ”

Wine Enthusiast (01/04/2025)

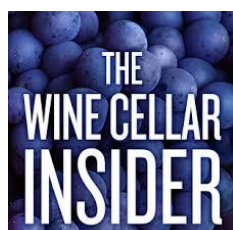

90pts - “ Dried flowers, bark and currants on the nose of this juicy and open red. It's medium-bodied, soft and approachable. Drink now. ”

James Suckling (01/2025)

90pts - “ Inky dark purple core and hue. Pure dark fruit, crushed cassis, blackberry, plum, wild herbs and mild oak notes. Dense and fruit forward palate with freshly crushed dark berry flavours, mild oak and rounded tannin, supple and digest with fine purity and length. ”

Andreas Larsson, Tasted (22/02/2024)

92pts - “ Medium-bodied, forward, easy-drinking, charmer with a sweetness to the fruits, but a lightness in the soft finish. Drink from 2025-2032. ”

Jeff Leve, The Wine Insider (01/03/2025)
